Washington, D.C. - Eastern Oklahoma Congressman Brad Carson (D-OK) announced today that Jarrin Dale Jackson of Oologah has received an appointment to attend The United States Military Academy at West Point, New York. Jarrin is the son of Dale and Betty Jackson. He is a 2003 graduate of Oologah High School and a current student at Tulsa Community College. Congressman Carson nominated Jarrin for appointment early this year, and he received an appointment following a nationwide selection process.

“Receiving an appointment to the United States Military Academy is an incredible accomplishment,” said Congressman Carson. “The hard work and dedication Jarrin has shown as well as his desire to serve his country are truly remarkable. It is heartwarming to see such talented young men and women succeed in this manner.”

Congressman Carson further emphasized the magnitude of Jarrin’s appointment noting that out of over 10,000 applicants, West Point grants only around 1,000 appointments.
